Execution Day—Suicide of Twitchell—Eaton Executed—No Statement on the Gallows.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, April 8, 1869.

Twitchell was left in his cell at two o'clock by Rev. Mr. Bringhurst, in company with two Catholic priests, who had been on a visit to Eaton's cell. The keepers had removed everything from Twitchell's cell, except a tin cup, at which Twitchell smiled and made a jocular remark.

At two minutes past five the watchman found Twitchell apparently in a deep sleep. He shook him and found life extinct. It has been ascertained that Twitchell was poisoned with strichnine. It appears Eaton was aware of Twitchell's intention to commit suicide. A gentleman who had a conversation with Eaton this morning says, some time last night the two men were allowed to have an interview and Twitchell said: "Jerry, you will have to go alone to-morrow; I'll not be with you; but mum's the word." Afterwards Eaton revealed this statement to the clergymen in attendance, and they thought it proper to inform the officers of the prison. Twitchell's cell was thoroughly searched, and everything removed with which he might injure himself, even the looking glass, but he must have had the poison concealed about him, or may have already swallowed it. Further examination of the cell led to the discovery of a piece of licorice root, which is supposed to have been impregnated with poison.

Eaton took his farewell of his wife this morning. It was an affecting scene. He made no statement on the gallows.

NEVADA.

Terrible Catastrophe in the Mines—Great Excitement—Many Lives Lost.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—A fire broke out this morning at Yellow Jacket mine, at Gold Hill, Nevada, which soon communicated to the Kentuck and Crown Point mines. Thus far (one o'clock, P. M.) eleven bodies have been taken from the shafts of the three mines. Other bodies were seen at the bottom of the Kentuck shaft, but it was impossible to remove them on account of the heat. It is uncertain how many persons were in the mines. The excitement and confusion was so great that they were unable to call the roll of those at work. Sixty men were at work on two levels at Crown Point. It is unknown how many escaped. The distress was fearful. The wives and children of the miners were congregated at the entrance of the mines, calling for their missing husbands and fathers.

Latest reports from Gold Hill say the number known dead is thirty-six; five in Yellow Jacket, eight in Kentuck, twenty-three in Crown Point. The fire originated in Kentuck, and is reported to be now spreading toward Jacket. Some of the firemen succeeded in getting a hose down Jacket shaft level to the fire. Hopes are entertained that the fire will soon be subdued. If not, then all expectation of saving any more lives will be abandoned, and the mouth of the shaft will be closed, ventilation stopped, and the fire thereby smothered. Yellow Jacket, Crown Point and Kentuck are unconnected. The other mines are underground, and there is no probability of the fire extending beyond them.

Virginia City is almost deserted, the people going to render assistance at the scene of the disaster. The San Francisco Stock and Exchange Board subscribed one thousand dollars, and sent the money by telegraph to Gold Hill, for the relief of the families suffering by the conflagration. The catastrophe is the most terrible that ever occurred in the mining districts on this coast. General sympathy is expressed for the distressed.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—The conflagration at Gold Hill mines is still raging and it appears to be confined principally to Yellow Jacket, owing to a cave which the firemen were unable to reach. Every effort is being made to clear the drift, but perhaps it will take all day to reach the fire. Eighteen bodies have been taken out of the burning mines, nine of them from one drift. The Yellow Jacket Company has rescinded their dividend for March five cents. The effect will render the stocks of Yellow Jacket, Crown Point, and Kentuck panicky, and the transactions to reduced values.

LATER PARTICULARS.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—The latest advices from Gold Hill state the fire is nearly subdued. The bodies of the victims have been removed from the different shafts, but seventeen men are yet missing and are supposed to have perished. The total number of lives lost is thirty-six.

It is impossible to estimate the damages to property. The Superintendents of Crown Point and Kentuck mines report them uninjured. Yellow Jacket has declined ten dollars a share, Crown Point twelve and Kentuck fourteen.

Indiana Legislature—No Quorum—Democrats Refuse to Qualify.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

INDIANAPOLIS, April 8.—The legislature convened in special session at two o'clock P. M. to-day. None of the newly elected members appeared to be qualified, and there being no quorum, both houses adjourned without transacting any business. Previous to the adjournment of the Senate a free discussion was indulged in. Senator Stein, Republican, of Lafayette, took the ground that if the newly elected members failed to qualify in the five days allowed them by the Constitution, those who remain at their posts must be regarded as the legislature, two-thirds of which shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. He argued that this view alone could save the State from anarchy and ruin. Two members who have not qualified are the same who resigned during the regular session, and have been re elected.

Both parties held a caucus this morning. The Democrats claim their course at the last session has been endorsed by the people, and the re-elected members refuse to qualify unless the Republicans bind themselves not to bring forward the negro suffrage question during the special session. The Representatives refused to make any pledges, but intimated that the necessary legislation would take precedence in the order of business.

FORTY-FIRST CONGRESS.

[FIRST SESSION.]

The Indian Appropriation Bill Finally Passed—Bill Submitting Constitutions Framed in Virginia, Mississippi and Texas Under Direction of the President, to the People. Passed by the House—Bill to Reorganize the Judiciary Finally Passed.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, April 8, 1869.

SENATE.

Mr. CONKLING, from Committee on Commerce, reported a bill for the encouragement of yachting, &c., with an amendment in the nature of a substitute.

Mr. RAMSEY, from Committee on Post Roads, reported, with amendments, the bill in relation to bridges over the Ohio river. The amendment provides if the Board of Engineers shall report that any of the bridges now constructed are material obstacles to navigation, said bridges shall be reconstructed in conformity to their report; also, with amendments, House bill to establish certain post roads.

Mr. RAMSEY, from Committee on Pacific Railroads, reported, without amendment, the House joint resolution granting the right of way for the construction of a railroad from Portland, Oregon, to a point west of the Cascade Mountains.

Mr. CHANDLER, from Committee on Commerce, reported, without amendment, the House River and Harbor appropriation bill.

Mr. WILSON introduced a joint resolution authorizing the President to appoint a Commission to make a survey across the Isthmus of Darien for a ship canal. Referred to Committee on Foreign Relations.

Mr. TRUMBULL, from Committee on Judiciary, to which the President's Message of yesterday had been referred, made a report recommending its consideration should be postponed until the first Monday of December. He made this report, he said, by direction of the Committee.

Mr. SHERMAN offered a concurrent resolution to rescind the resolution to adjourn on Saturday next. He thought it better to leave the States of Virginia and Mississippi under military government, under the vigorous, prompt and kindly administration of President Grant, until next session, when Congress could properly consider the question of their readmission. Besides, the President had full power under existing laws to submit the Constitution of Virginia to the people, and there was no need for further legislation on that subject. The same was true of Mississippi.

Mr. HOWARD took the same view.

Mr. SUMNER said in the work of reconstruction nothing was done while anything was left undone, and there was certainly much to be done before the country could expect the reconciliation and peace which were to be the crown of the work of reconstruction. There were also other important matters demanding the attention of Congress, chief among which were the Pacific Railroad and the revision of the naturalization laws. To show the necessity of action on the latter, he read a letter from one of our friends in New York, expressing the fear that Congress would adjourn without doing anything to punish the enormous election frauds perpetrated in New York by the Democratic party, or to prevent the other greater frauds which that party has in contemplation, stating there was a combination between Tammany Hall and the Erie Railroad Company for fraudulent purposes, and expressing the writer's belief that unless such frauds were punished by Congress, and prevented in the future, the Republican party could never win an election in that State.

Mr. STEWART saw no necessity for prolonging the session beyond next Saturday. The reasons urged now by some against adjournment were not new, but were just as well known at the time of the passage of the resolution to adjourn on Saturday as now.

Mr. CONKLING took the same view. He thought the force of the argument against adjourning of the Senator from Massachusetts was somewhat lessoned, by the fact that the Senator always opposed such resolutions. During the administration of Mr. Johnson, Mr. Sumner had had a plausible and good reason for such opposition, and it might be safely said while those two eminent persons, Johnson and Sumner, were not confederates in anything else, they had been, during the whole term of the former, conspirators to keep Congress in continuous session. [Laughter.]

At the expiration of the morning hour, the unfinished business, the bill to amend the act imposing a tax on distilled spirits, tobacco, and for other purposes, was taken up.

Mr. SHERMAN moved to postpone it for the purpose of disposing of his pending resolution.

Mr. TRUMBULL thought it better not to pass upon that resolution until the time fixed for adjournment should be near. He was opposed to rescinding the resolution to adjourn on Saturday, but was in favor of providing for the submission of the constitutions of Virginia and Mississippi to the people of those States, which he thought could be done between now and Saturday, by the passage of a joint resolution.

Mr. RICE took the same view.

The motion to postpone the unfinished business was lost—20 to 30.

The Senate then proceeded to consider the bill.

Several amendments, reported from the Committee on Finance, were agreed to, among them a provision extending the time for the withdrawal of distilled spirits from bonded houses until the 30th of June, 1869, but subjecting it to an additional tax of one per cent. per gallon per month after the 20th of April until withdrawn, and forfeiting all distilled spirits remaining in bond after the 30th of June, 1869; also, a provision amending section 59th of the original act, that retail dealers shall pay a license of $25; that wholesale dealers selling not less than five gallons at a time pay tax of $100; dealers whose sales, including sales of all merchandise, exceed $25,000, an additional tax of ten dollars for every one hundred dollars' worth of sale of liquors in excess of $25,000, and on every $1,000 worth of sales of merchandise shall pay at the same rate as a wholesale dealer but no distiller or brewer who has paid a special tax as such, and who sells only distilled spirits or malt liquors, at the place of manufacture, in original casks or packages, to which stamps are affixed, shall be required to pay a special tax of wholesale dealers.

Mr. SPRAGUE spoke at length, warning the people against the policy which, if permitted to continue, must reduce them to servitude and ruin. He also gave a rebuke to the press for not being always engaged in promoting the cause of freedom and justice. He denied he intended to run a newspaper, and made a general statement of what he would do if he were President. He then read an argument in advocacy of his bill to provide for loaning public money.

Mr. ANTHONY then took the floor, but yielded to the motion to take a recess from 5 to 7.30.

The House bill to authorize the submission of constitutions to the people of Virginia and Mississippi was laid on the table, and at 4.40 the Senate went into executive session.

Evening Session.—Mr. WILSON, from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported a joint resolution for the protection of soldiers and their heirs, which was amended and passed.

It provides that bounties shall be paid or sent by the agent of the Government direct to the soldiers, or their heirs, who may be entitled to them, without the intervention of claim agents.

Mr. WILSON called up the resolution to place Gen. Heintzelman on the retired list, which passed.

Mr. ANTHONY resumed the floor and replied to Mr. Sprague. He ridiculed the style and manner of his colleague's recent speeches, and said, notwithstanding the dreadful condition of our National affairs, with Mr. Sprague as leader in finance, Mr. Colorado Jewett in diplomacy, and Mr. George Francis Train in general statesmanship, there was still hope for the country. [Laughter.]

Several other amendments were made to the pending bill, which now goes to the House for concurrence in the amendments.

On motion of Mr. CHANDLER, the Senate took up and passed the House bill making appropriations for the improvement of rivers and harbors for the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1869.

Mr. MORTON moved to take up the joint resolution for the payment of Senators from reconstructed States, which was lost.

Mr. TRUMBULL called up the bill to punish the holding of office in violation of the Fourteenth Amendment.

Mr. THURMAN moved to strike out the second section of the Judiciary Committee amendment, declaring a violation of this law a misdemeanor, punishable by fine, imprisonment and disqualification from holding office, and opposed it as punishing men for opinion's sake.

Mr. TRUMBULL defended the section as disqualifying none not already disqualified by the Fourteenth Amendment.

Mr. DAVIS also opposed the section as designed merely to gratify the revengeful feeling of human nature.

Mr. FESSENDEN, from the Committee of Conference, reported the Indian Appropriation bill as agreed upon.

The report was concurred in.

Messrs. Howard, Thurman and Morton further discussed the pending bill until 10.15, when, on motion of Mr. TRUMBULL, it was postponed.

The Senate concurred in the House amendments to the bill to amend the Judicial system.

Adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

After some fillibustering by the Democrats, the resolution reported by the Election Committee, declaring S. L. Hoge entitled prima facie to his seat as a Representative from the Third Congressional District of South Carolina, was adopted, and Mr. Hoge sworn in.

Mr. BUTLER, Massachusetts, from the Reconstruction Committee, reported a bill authorizing the submission of the Constitutions of Virginia, Mississippi and Texas, to a vote of the people, and authorizing the election of State officers and members of Congress.

The bill authorizes the President, at such times as he may deem best, to submit the Virginia Constitution to the registered voters of that State for ratification or rejection, and also to submit to a separate vote such provisions of that Constitution as he may deem best, elections to be held and returns made in the manner provided by the election ordinance adopted by the Convention. It authorizes the President to submit in the same way to the voters of Texas the entire Constitution framed for the State, or separate provisions of it, provided no election shall be held in Texas for any purpose until the President so directs the same for Mississippi. If either of the Constitutions be ratified, the Legislatures elected shall assemble on the fourth Tuesday after the official promulgation of the ratification. The Commanding General in each State may, with the approval of the President, suspend, until action by the Legislature, all laws he may deem oppressive.

Mr. PAINE offered a substitute for the bill. It authorizes the President to submit the Constitutions of Virginia, Texas and Mississippi respectively to the registered voters of such States, and submit at the same time such Constitutions, with such provisions stricken out therefrom as he may direct. The voters shall, at the same time, vote for State officers and members of Congress. The District Commanders may cause the list of registered voters to be revised and appoint registers. No election shall be held in either of such States for any purpose until the President shall direct.

The original bill was explained and advocated by Mr. Butler, and the substitute advocated and explained by Mr. Paine.

Mr. FARNSWORTH argued for the original bill and against the substitute, and stated the original bill had received the unanimous vote of the Reconstruction Committee, Democrats as well as Republicans.

Mr. BROOKS said he had never voted for any measure so reluctantly as he voted in the Committee for this bill, and as he would vote for it in the House; but he took this bill as the best that he was likely to get. He did not wish to make the President of the United States a monarch over those three States, but he preferred the despotism of one to the tyranny of the many, and he would appeal to the President and beseech him that his heart might soften to these people.

Mr. WOODWARD said the minority of the Reconstruction Committee agreed to this measure, not because they preferred it, but because it was better than any other they were likely to get, and because they regarded it as more natutal, more fraternal, and more likely to restore the Union of the States than any heretofore proposed by the majority.

Mr. GARFIELD said the minority were somewhat in the condition of the doctor who finds that the broken limb of his patient has been badly set, and it has to be broken over again, so that it may be set scientifically. He did not believe in breaking limbs, but was willing, under the circumstances, to break the limb over again for getting it in better shape. He had, at the suggestion of his colleague, Mr. Schenck, (occupying the chair as Speaker pro tem,) drawn up an amendment which, he thought, would meet the views of the gentleman from Wisconsin. It was that the votes should be taken either on each of the designated provisions above, or in connection with the other portion of the Constitution, as the President might direct.

Mr. PAINE accepted that amendment and withdrew his own substitute.

The amendment was agreed to.

Mr. GARFIELD, to show the unanimity of the House on this subject, called for the yeas and nays on the passage of the bill. The vote was so taken and the bill was passed.—yeays 124, nays 24 The nays were Messrs Adams, Archer, Biggs, Bird, Burr, Cleveland, Eldridge, Getz, Golladay, Haldeman, Hamill, Jones, Kerr, Knott, McNeely, Moffett, Potter, Randell, Reeves, Sweeney, Trimble, Wells, Winchester and Hanna.

Mr. LYNCH introduced a bill to amend the National Currency act. Referred to Committee on Banking and Currency.

The House then took up the contested election case, from Second District, Louisiana, the majority report being that L. A. Sheldon be admitted to a seat, and the minority report being that C. S. Hunt is entitled to a seat.

After discussion, lasting over an hour and a half, the amendment was rejected and the original resolution adopted, and Mr. Sheldon admitted to a seat.

Recess till evening, the evening session to be for general business.

Evening Session.—Mr. HOLMAN, from Committee on Claims, reported a bill to pay Susan A. Shelby, of Fort Gibson, Miss., $5,000 for cotton sold or captured by the United States. Passed.

Mr. DIXON, from Committee on Commerce, reported a joint resolution for the sale or exchange of the site of the Custom House, Nashville. Passed.

Also, a bill to discontinue Saut-Ste-Marie as a port of entry, in Superior District, and to establish Marquette in lieu thereof, to take effect from 12th of May next. Passed.

Mr. DAWES offered a resolution to give to members of the Fortieth Congress, whose successors are not yet elected, the books and documents to which the members of the Forty first Congress are entitled. Adopted.

The Senate bill to remove the charge of desertion from certain soldiers of the Thirteenth Tennessee Cavalry, passed.

The Senate bill for holding a term of the United States District Court in Nevada, passed.

Mr. HOPKINS offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds to ascertain the number of buildings now rented by the Government in Washington, for the use of the various departments, rents paid, etc. Adopted.

Also, a resolution placing the House restaurant under the charge of the Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds. Adopted.

The Senate bill concerning divorces in the District of Columbia was passed.

The Committee on Roads and Canals reported a bill granting lands and right of way to the St. James and Little Rock Railroad Company.

Ordered printed and recommitted.

The Senate bill legalizing the stamping of certain subscription papers, executed and issued to the Iowa Northern Central Railway Company, passed.

Mr. DOCKERY, from the Committee on Freedmen's Affairs, asked leave to report back the Senate bill to continue until the 1st of January, 1871, the educational department of the Freedmen's Bureau and the collection and payment by the Commissioner of that bureau, of monies due to colored soldiers, sailors and marines.

Objection was made, and Mr. DOCKERY moved to suspend the rules.

Mr. SHANKS briefly explained the bill.

Mr. LAWRENCE opposed it and stated the title of the Howard University in Washington, on which over $100,000 of the funds of the Freedmen's Bureau were expended, was vested in a private corporation.

Mr. SHANKS proposed to answer the statements of Mr. Lawrence, but Mr. BINGHAM objected, saying he guessed they had enough of Freedmen's Bureau.

The rules were not suspended.

Mr. BINGHAM moved the Senate bill to amend the Judiciary system of the United States be taken from the Speaker's table, that the Senate amendments to the House amendments be non-concurred in, and a Committee of Conference be requested. He said under the Senate amendment a Judge might be pensioned after ten weeks' service, as well as after ten years, provided he was seventy years of age. On that point, alone, it seemed to him the bill was fatally defective.

Mr. ELDRIDGE was opposed to the amendments on another ground. He was opposed to empowering any one man to organize the Judiciary as a political Court, and it must be apparent to every one, if the President, representing the great Republican party of the country, should appoint all the Judges for whose appointment this bill provided, the Court must necessarily be a political Court. He hoped the Conference Committee would take that question into consideration and consider it as statesmen and not as politicians.

Mr. BINGHAM repeated his objections to the Senate amendments. He said it was absurd that a man verging on the age of seventy years should be appointed a Judge of the Supreme Court to day and should be retained a month after on full pay.

Mr. POLAND argued against the objection of Mr. Bingham, and contended the bill as amended by the Senate was better than the bill as it passed the House.

The discussion was continued by Messrs. Poland, Butler, (Mass.) Bingham, Voorhees, Eldridge and Kerr, but it was interrupted by Mr. DAWES, who presented the conference report on the Indian appropriation bill.

The Senate recedes from its amendment making appropriations under new treaties, and agrees to the House substitute placing $2,000,000 at the disposal of the President, with an additional proviso, authorizing the President to appoint a Commission of ten persons, eminent for their intelligence and philanthropy, to exercise joint control with the Secretary of the Interior over disbursements for Indians. The Senate also agrees to the House amendment declaring that nothing in the bill shall be construed as approving or ratifying any Indian treaty made after July 20th, 1867.

Mr. DAWES explained the report, showing the principle for which the House had contended was preserved. He stated, in reply to Mr. Lawrence, the total amount appropriated in the bill was some five millions, and in reply to Mr. Garfield, that the whole thing was taken out of the Indian Bureau and placed under the control of the President himself, so that no other person could spend a dollar of the sum appropriated, unless the President put it into his hands.

Mr. STARKE inquired whether the Indian Bureau had been abolished?

Mr. DAWES replied that its occupation was gone, unless the President should see fit, on his own motion and responsibility, to make use of it. He further expressed his conviction that not another Indian treaty would be made.

Mr. CLARK opposed the report as failing to meet the Indian question, but as simply bridging over the difficulty until next session.

Several other members took part in the discussion.

Finally the previous question was moved and seconded, and the report adopted.

The discussion on the bill to amend the judicial system was then resumed.

Mr. KERR favored concurrence in the Senate amendments.

Mr. SCHENCK said there were two material points in the Senate amendments. One was postponing appointments until December. He found there were now being handed around, all over the city, papers to be signed, recommending some one for Supreme Judge or Circuit Judge. Chaffering was going on, bargains being made, such as "I will go for your Collector or Assessor, if you go for my Judge." He did not want Judges to be appointed at this time, and in the midst of such things. He thought it better to wait till December. In the meantime the merits of prominent individuals in different circuits would be discussed and public opinion would be concentrated on some particular men. The other point in the amendment was the substitution of "resignation" of Judges instead of their "retirement" without resignation. That was also an improvement on the House proposition, with the exception that the Senate proposition did not provide for any length of services. He proposed that the House concur in all the Senate amendments, except in that one, and insert in that the words "who having held his commission as such at least ten years," so it will read "any Judge who, having held his position as such at least ten years, and shall have arrived at the age of seventy years, may be permitted to resign."

After some further discussion, Mr. Schenck's amendment was agreed to, and the Senate amendments as amended were concurred in.

The contested election case from the Third Pennsylvania District was considered, without action.

Mr. KELLY introduced a bill to promote the establishment of an international metrical system of coinage. Referred.

The bill allowing an appropriation for the Springfield, Illinois, Custom House for the next fiscal year to be used for this year, passed.

Mr. BATES introduced a bill to secure the completion of the Washington and Lincoln monuments. Referred.

THE STORY OF LIFE.

BY JOHN G. SAXE.

Say what is life? 'Tis to be born;
A hapless Babe, to greet the light
With a sharp wail, as if the morn
Foretold a cloudy noon and night;
To weep, to sleep, and weep again,
With sunny smiles between, and then?

And then apace the infant grows
To be a laughing, sprightly boy,
Happy despite his little woes,
Were he but conscious of his joy;
To be, in short, from two to ten,
A merry, moody Child; and then?

And then, in coat and trousers clad,
To learn to say the Decalogue,
And break it, an unthinking Lad,
With mirth and mischief all agog;
A truant oft by field and fen
To capture butterflies, and then?

And then, increased in strength and size,
To be, anon, a Youth full grown;
A hero in his mother's eyes,
A young Apollo in his own;
To imitate the ways of men
In fashionable sins, and then?

And then at last, to be a Man,
To fall in love: to woo and wed:
With seething brain to scheme and plan,
To gather gold, or toil for bread;
To sue for fame with tongue or pen,
And gain or lose the prize; and then?

And then in gray and wrinkled Eld
To mourn the speed of life's decline;
To praise the scenes his youth beheld,
And dwell in memory of Lang-Syne.
To dream awhile with darkened ken,
Then drop into his grave, and then?

PENNSYLVANIA.

Incendiary fires are frequent in Altoona.

The Industrial School at Meadville has proved a success.

A wild cat weighing fifty pounds was shot near Hartford.

The temperance cause is being agitated in Armstrong county.

The Perkiomen Railroad is to be extended several miles further.

The recent freshet caused considerable damage in Susquehanna county.

Meadville College is flourishing and has more students this year than ever.

A fire at Hamburg destroyed several dwelling houses, and inflicted considerable loss.

Every day we find in our exchanges notices of persons leaving this State for the west.

In Tioga county, Pa., there are only three licensed hotels. In Potter county there is not one.—Republican.

The citizens of Union county are again agitating the question of a railroad from Bellefonte to Lewistown via Boalsburg.

Pat. Murphy, aged 110, and his wife, aged 80, of Westmoreland county, are the oldest married couple in Pennsylvania.

An old mill two miles east of Downingtown has been filled with new machinery and started as a manufactory of cotton wadding.

Mr. Griffin Brown, of Tidioute, formerly Associate Judge, was fatally injured, at his oil refinery, on the 27th ult., and has since died.

Altoona is excited over the proposition to borrow $200,000 to pay for the improvement of the streets of that conflagracious young city.

An unknown man jumped into the river, near the waterworks, at Harrisburg, on Saturday last, and was drowned. His body was not recovered.

Malinda Snyder, a mute, aged about twenty, has disappeared from her home, in Liberty Valley, Perry county. Supposed to be lost in the mountains.

John McClure, aged about seventy, a farmer who resided in Harbor Creek, was, on Tuesday afternoon found dead in an outhouse on Seventh street.—Reading Dispatch.

Erie harbor is clear of ice and so is the lake for a mile or two from the harbor's entrance, but thence across, says the Erie Dispatch, the lake looks like an immense field of snow.

A charter has been granted by the Legislature for a railroad from Tunkhannock via Montrose, to some point on the State line, from whence the road is to be continued to Binghampton.

A young man named Householder, a citizen of McConneellstown, was killed on the railroad, opposite the Broad Top Depot, in this borough, on Tuesday afternoon last.—Huntingdon Journal.

The State Medical Association of Pennsylvania will hold its next Convention at Erie on the 9th of June next. The Erie County Medical Society is making provision for the suitable entertainment of its guests.

The Nashville Press announces the arrival of six or eight well-to-do families from Pennsylvania, and adds, "they will prove a valuable acquisition to the community whither they are going. The company spoken of is from Armstrong county.

In Frankfort, one evening last week, the wife and daughter of Otto B. Schott were standing upon their doorstep, when they were attacked by a savage dog, and despite the cries of the mother, her child was bitten and torn in the most terrible manner by the animal. It is thought that she will not recover.

We learn from the Jamestown Journal that Samuel Dinsmore, a well known pilot, was drowned at Corydon, Pa., last Sunday. He fell from a ferry boat which he was assisting to put across the river. His body floated out on a bar a short distance below, and was recovered, but he was dead when assistance reached him.

A young man named Post, a student at the Pennsylvania Military Academy, in attempting to jump off a train which was passing Chester at the rate of six miles an hour, was flung under a car, which ran over him, fracturing his skull and breaking both legs so as to render amputation necessary, but the operation was performed in vain, and in a few hours he died.

The Hanover Spectator says we learn that Mr. Jacob Wolff, residing in the vicinity of Abbottstown, Adams county, died on the 19th ult., at the extreme age of one hundred years. He had twelve children—seven living and five dead; grand children, sixty-five living, fifteen dead; great grand children, 265 living, 26 dead; great great grand children, three living—making 240 living and 46 dead, or a total of 286.

The Trenton Emporium of the 29th ult. says: "The eccentric Conniemacker brothers, who live on a farm in Pennsylvania, just above the New Bridge, of whom it is said, 'too much learning hath made them mad,' performed rather a novel ceremony yesterday. They came down and rode around the city in their shirt sleeves, mounted on white horses and carrying lighted torches, with a son of Ethiopia riding on a horse between them, bearing on a stick as a banner, a $50 Government bond. They stopped in front of the True American office, and after getting off a long harangue abounding in quotations from the Bible, set fire to and burned up the bond, which just put $50 in Uncle Sam's pocket.

Recognition of Cuba.

The Army and Navy Journal, in the course of an article entitled "Cuba and the Confederacy—A Contrast, Not a Parallel," says:

Spain followed France and England in their swift recognition of the Confederacy, and without consulting our Government. The Spanish "Royal Decree" of recognition was dated on the 17th of June, only thirty-five days after the proclamation of Queen Victoria, and it was much more elaborate. It began by declaring that Queen Isabella had "resolved to maintain the strictest neutrality in the struggle undertaken between the Federal States of the Union and the Confederate States of the South;" and it proceeded to put these two "Powers" on an exact par, though the rebels had then fought no battle, save the bloodless attack on Sumter, whereof news had been received but five or six weeks before.

We admit that Spain had the same motive for her hasty and insulting decree as England for her proclamation—to-wit: jealousy and fear. What England feared for Canada, Spain feared for Cuba—eventual revolt and gravitation for the Union. Like England, Spain played her game; like England, she had lost it; and like England, she must abide the consequences. President Grant said in his inaugural address:

"I would respect the rights of all nations, demanding equal respect for our own. If others depart from this rule in their dealings with us, we may be compelled to follow their precedent."

Let us "follow the precedent" which Spain set us in her State Paper of June 17, 1861, and what shall we do for Cuba?

Progress in England.

The report of the royal commission in England on naturalization is the most extreme concession ever made by a country where doctrine and practice have been "once a subject, always a subject," and that has been in more than one difficulty in consequence. If we claim that the recommendations reported this morning are the sequence of American precept, strictly adhered to and incorporated in many treaties, we shall assume nothing that is not fully borne out by palpable facts.

The recommendations reported to Parliament are a law recognizing the alienation of British subjects naturalized abroad, in precisely the same manner and to the same degree undoubtedly as was stipulated in our late German treaties; and, further than this, it is reported advisable to do away with the restrictions that prevent aliens from possessing real estate in fee in Great Britain.

Neither of these recommendations is of a very radical practical nature, but both serve to mark the increasing liberality of the sea-girt isle. England has been drawn into the grand congress of the world, and has to make her laws square with those that are higher. The church disendowment in Ireland is a progressive measure. Both of the measures now recommended are of the same sort. They will not hurt that country, and they will enlarge the volume of emigration and at the same time conduce to increasing the number of resident aliens—now a rich, numerous and powerful class.

Ladies in Indiana have to be very careful about living with men under the supposition that it is all right—legally. Here, for instance, was Mrs. Albert French, of Lagrange, who, the other day, left the room of her sick husband to go on an errand to the house of a neighbor across the street. While there some one asked her if she had heard of a rumor to the effect that she was divorced from her husband. She replied no, and, in a laughing way, was making some remark about the absurd stories people tell, when a person entering, handed her a note from an attorney, informing her that the rumor was true. Her husband had made an application in the Circuit Court of Elkhart county, where the parties had never lived at all; the Sheriff had served the process so informally, that she never received it; the application had been granted on the 19th of March; her husband had brought the decree home with him and lived with her more than a week before she found it out, during which time she had been attentively nursing him through a fit of sickness. Mr. Albert French is, evidently a fit subject for education by a vigilance committee.

A letter from Massillon, O., to the Cincinnati Gazette, says: Reference has been made on various occasions to a railroad down the Tuscarawas Valley, connecting with other roads, thus forming a continuous line from Cleveland to Cincinnati. In a recent letter from New Philadelphia attention was called to the subject. The report has been current on the streets to-day that the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company, which is largely interested in the Massillon and Cleveland Railroad, upon which cars will be running in August, have, with other parties, made the necessary arrangements to construct a road from this city to New Philadelphia. Of course the ten miles from New Philadelphia to Dennison will be built; the remaining fifteen miles from Dresden to Zanesville is already under contract. When the three gaps above mentioned are closed by iron rails, the great wealth of the Muskingum and Tuscarawas Valleys in the shape of agricultural and mineral products will have an outlet.

A Mr. Seger, a German, has just published a volume of "Travels in the United States. He was in Washington during the impeachment excitement, and was introduced to President Johnson. He says he found the President a prey to great agitation, and, to his extreme surprise, Mr. Johnson addressed him, without any provocation on his part, in a speech lasting over an hour, on the great question of the day. Mr. Seger says that while he was seated on a sofa, the President was speaking to him in as loud a voice and gesticulating as fiercely as if he had before him, not a perfect stranger, who was utterly lost in wonder at the unexpected performance, but the listening Senate

Deaf Mutes.

The last report of the Massachusetts Board of Education, discusses the rival methods of teaching deaf mutes now pursued in this country. One by signs and the manual alphabet; the other by lip reading and articulation. The former is that mainly relied on at the old asylum, at Hartford, Ct. The other, the lip reading, is the method chiefly relied on at the new institution at Northampton, the "Clarke Institution for Deaf Mutes." The Hartford teachers and managers take the ground that, to those who were born deaf, or who lost their hearing in infancy, articulation cannot be successfully taught. And even for those who can be thus taught, circumstances must be very favorable. Few, it is said, can be taught by one teacher; and great flexibility of the organs, and expressiveness of face are essential to any considerable success; and it can be made available only in favorable lights, and at short distances. And it is urged further, that even when articulation has been acquired, it is generally so uncouth and unnatural as to be anything but pleasant to the hearer; absolute deafness preventing the modulation or regulation of the pitch and tone of the voice. On the other hand the managers of the Clarke Institution claim that the effectual teaching of lip reading and articulation is a fact abundantly established by the experience of two years' teaching at their institution, and very interesting examples are furnished of the acquisition of pupils in spelling, arithmetic, geography, reading and writing, who have been taught by lip learning.

Novel End of a Breach of Promise Trial.

I knew a case in which a most eligible damsel was pronounced by his friends as unfit to marry a certain young divine, because, forsooth, she "was without a penny." He was weak-minded enough, after having proposed to her in form, to give way to their remonstrances, and she was strong-minded enough to bring an action against him for "breach of promise." The damages were laid at five thousand pounds, and she gained them in full. The impressional defendant, who reaped nothing but ridicule from his former advisers, throughout this trying ordeal—which included a protracted cross-examination by Sergeant Valentine, was now brought to reason. He addressed the young lady even more fervently than before: "I have behaved infamously," he owned, "but if you will only forgive and forget, we may be happy yet. The only objection which my friends had to you has been removed. They can no longer say that you are without a penny, since you have five thousand pounds of your very own." And the happy pair were married accordingly.—Chambers' Journal.

The Cheyenne Leader states that on Wednesday morning, March 25, at the roll call, Fort Laramie was not a little surprised to find Red Cloud and hundreds of his merry men, with bows strung and mounted on ponies, in occupation of the parade ground. There they stood, the five hundred, in close order and motionless. On the surrounding hills, overlooking the fort, were thousands of Red Cloud's faithful followers, while the plains were black with droves of ponies, quietly grazing. Fort Laramie was not only surprised, but astonished. The commanding officer, having been speedily apprised of the situation, at once ordered light pieces of artillery to be charged and ranged to cover the impassive five hundred that, during the darkness, had rode unsuspected into the parade ground. An interpreter was then despatched to learn the object of these mysterious maneuvers. Red Cloud sent answer back, "We want to eat." A parley ensued, when the great Sioux Chief said his people were suffering for food and must have it. He had no desire to fight, as might be seen. He could have easily captured the whole garrison, but that was not his object. After some further talk, Red Cloud was induced to order his warriors to camp and send his squaws in for provisions. The total number of Indians now at Fort Laramie under Red Cloud is said to be not less than six thousand.

Strange as it may seem, it is a fact that the late Lord Brougham died without any assests. The explanation is that, long before his death, he had by deed of gift made over everything—ex-Chancellor's pension—to his brother William, the present peer, who in return provided for all expenses. Aversion to trouble about money matters is said to have suggested this arrangement. The Inland Revenue authorities, at first incredulous, satisfied themselves by private inquiry as to the bona fides and validity of the deed of gift. But it is a curious fact that an ex-Lord Chancellor, who for upward of thirty years received a pension of £5,000 a year, has died without paying a shilling of probate or legacy duty.

Louisa Muhlback writes every day enough to fill a whole printed sheet. She begins at eight o'clock in the morning and stops at four in the afternoon. In the evening she receives her literary friends in her sumptuously-furnished salon, or attends a performance at the theatre, where her good-looking and talented daughter Theodora is playing. Despite the large copyrights which the authoress of "Joseph the Second" and "Louisa of Russia" has received for her works, she has not saved any money, and is still writing for her daily bread.

The chances of the National Bank bill in the House do not seem to be first-class; and the determination of the Committee, on Monday, to insert an amendment taking from all banks any circulation they may have in excess of one million will probably raise up more enemies. A single objection will compel a motion to suspend the rules to get it up to day; and for that the requisite two-thirds vote can hardly be reckoned certain.

A bill is before the Michigan Legislature which is designed to encourage manufacturers. It enacts that the capital, implements, machinery, stock, and effects now employed by any firm or corporation in the State in certain branches of manufacture, shall be exempt from taxation for five years from the passage and approval of the bill. Certain conditions accompany this provision, limiting its operation.

Upon the argument of a case of breach of marriage promise, in Lebanon, last week, when it was alleged the defendant wanted to marry his deceased wife's sister in unseemly haste, one of the counsel said "the cold baked potatoes of the funeral were fried for the marriage feast." And the man who thus improved upon Hamlet, got a verdict of $1,800 for his client.

DR. WHITTIER
CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL private diseases Syphilis in all its forms, Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Orchitis, and all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produces some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.
A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, pruritis, Amenorrhoea, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhoea, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.
It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.
The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.
The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who have failed, read what he says. Hours 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. Sundays 12 M. to 2 P. M. Office, No. 9 WYLIE STREET, (near Court House.) Pittsburgh, Pa.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, April 8, 1869.

The markets are reasonably active with a slight improvement in the demand for some articles, and a fair volume of business in the aggregate. The demand for everything, however, is restricted entirely to supplying immediate wants, the stringency in money matters tending to prevent anything like a speculative feeling; in regard to values, there are no changes worthy of special notice.

APPLE BUTTER—90@$1 per gallon.

APPLES—In limited supply and firm; with sales at $4@6½ per bbls, for common to choice.

BUTTER—The demand still holds out, but the supply is fully up to it and prices are unchanged, at 45@50, for prime to choice Roll.

BEANS—$3,40@3,50 per bushel.

CRANBERRIES—Sales at $18@$22.

CHEESE—Sales of New York Goshen at 24@25.

CARBON OIL—May be quoted at 30@31 for standard brands, in a jobbing way.

DRIED FRUIT—Peaches dull but unchanged, with small sales at 14 for quarters, and 18@19 for halves. Considerably inquiry for apples, and supply very light; may be quoted at 11@13, as to quality.

EGGS—Coming in more freely, and prices are breaking down; 26 seems to be standard price, though there were some sales at 27.

HAY—There is a continued steady demand for baled, and prime tight pressed may be quoted at $24@25, on wharf, and to arrive.

HOMINY—$5,75@6 per bbl.

HEMP—$225 per ton.

PROVISIONS—The demand is more active, and we can report regular sales at 14@14¼ for Shoulders; 16¾@17 for Ribbed, and 18@18¼ for Clear Sides, and 19½ for Sugar Cured Hams. Steamed Lard, 19¼@19½, and kettle rendered, 20@20½. Mess Pork $31,50@$32,00.

POTATOES—In fair demand but unchanged, 75@80 per bushel.

PEANUTS—10 cts per pound.

GRAIN—There seems to be no demand for Wheat in this market and prices are nominal at $1,45@1,50 for prime Winter. Oats quiet and unchanged at 65@66 on track and 67@70 in store; sale of two cars, in first hands, at 64. There is considerable inquiry for prime ear Corn, with sales on wharf at 77@78, but shelled continues dull with offers to sell prime Yellow at 75@76. Rye dull and nominal at $1,40@1,43. No demand whatever for Barley and not enough doing to establish quotations; it has declined, however, and we doubt whether choice Spring could be sold above $2,00, if that.

SEEDS—There is a very fair demand for Clover, with sales at $10@10,50, and Timothy at $3,50@3,75. Flaxseed quoted at $2,45@2,50.

RIVER NEWS.

The weather yesterday was mild and pleasant, and all that could be desired for thet ransaction of out door business.

The river continnes to recede rapidly with seven feet and a half in the channel by the Monongahela marks.

The Gallatin, of the Brownsville packet line, will enter the Pittsburgh and Parkersburg trade next week, taking the place of Fayette, recently sold. Capt. A. S. Shepard, is to have command. Capt. Shepard, is no stranger in this trade.

Capt. Daniel Moore, goes to New Orleans as clerk on the Australia, Capt. Stockdale's new boat.

Capt. Wm. Dean, received a telegram from Capt. Golding yesterday, stating that the Camelia would arrive here last night.

The Lorena, from Pittsburgh and Argosy, from Memphis, araived at St. Louis on Tuesday. The Bellevernon was advertised to leave there for Pittsburgh on Wednesday.

Messrs. Flack & Collingwood, the well known steamboat agents, have removed their office to the corner of First and Water streets, formerly occupied by Lewis, Olliver & Phillips.

The Kenton was due from Portsmouth last night, and will return as usual today at 4 P. M.

—The Ida Rees No. 2, and Mollie Ebert, were both at Cairo on Tuesday.

—The Maggie Hays, Capt. B. C. Martin, is announced for St. Louis and St. Paul. She is an excellent boat.

—The Camelia, Capt. Thos. H. Golding, will be the first boat out for Nashville. This boat is now regularly in the trade.

—The A. J. Walt who killed his room mate and "chum," night before last, with an ax, and then killed himself, at Memphis, is a brother to Mart. Walt, who is well known by all steamboatmen.

—The R. E. Lee made the run from Cincinnati to Louisville in six hours and forty-seven minutes, with one hundred pounds of steam. Capt. Cannon says the Lee can make the run in five hours easily.

—An unknown man was found dead on the river bank, near the water's edge, at Cattlesburg, Monday morning. He was supposed to have left the Kenton there the night before, in an intoxicated condition.

—The new Northern Line packet Minneapolis, Capt. Rhodes, is filling up rapidly for St. Louis and St. Paul, and will leave to-morrow. She is one of the finest steamers in the western waters, and offers superior inducements to families emigrating west.

—While the Magenta was lying at the Vicksburg levee Wednesday evening about dark, five bales of cotton were rolled off her guards into the river, and towed off with a canoe. Two bales were captured, the thieves escaping with the remaining three.

—In the case of Father Bachman vs. the U. S. Mail Line, for $10,000 damages for injuries received at the time of the explosion of the boilers of the Gen. Lytle, the decision has been rendered, in the U. S. Court of Louisville, and damage to the amount of $6,000 were allowed to Father Bachman.

—Colonel J. V. Guthrie, Supervising Inspector, has refused to hear the appeal of Napoleon B. Jenkins, late pilot of the steamer America, from the decision of the Local Board, at Cincinnati, revoking his license. Captain Devenny, Supervising Inspector of the Seventh District, has decided that Jenkins can appeal only to the Secretary of the Treasury.

—The St. Louis Democrat says: The Great Republic leaves this morning for New Orleans with a good trip. There is this worthy of note: That Capt. W. B. Donaldson and John Brooks have left her, and she is commanded by Capt. I. C. Vanhook, with James Kerr, Jr., in the office. Capt. Vanhook is an experienced boatman, although new in this trade. Mr. Kerr is at home in it, being clerk of the well-remembered Crystal Palace and City of Memphis,

—The Alaski was advertised to leave Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Wednesday. The Gazette, of that city says: Capt. Oakes says this is only a pleasure trip, and the price of freight is no object. The Alaska is against barges, railroads and every other means of transportation to-day. She will ereate a sensation at Pittsburgh. It is not often that the people who inhabit the "Smoky City" have an opportunity to look at a sternwheel boat that can carry 1,000 tuns, and yet be short enough and narrow enough to pass through the canal locks at Louisville.

—Capt. Dryden telegraphs to the Cincinnati Commercial as follows: Captains complain because there is no Falls pilot at New Albany or Portland, but keep them waiting to send for one to decend the Falls. If they will not be so partial to one man, but will take a good pilot on board when he shows himself, they would have no occasion to complain. If they would telegraph to me as well as to Pink Varble, the steamers would not have to wait at Jeffersonville for two hours for a pilot, as has been the custom. There is no necessity for waiting, as there are as good pilots, and better boatmen than Varble on the Falls.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 132.

THE Market Committee of City Councils met yesterday for the purpose of selecting a site for the proposed new market house. No choice was made.

MR. JOHN JAY, of New York, is said to have declined the offer of the Austrian Mission. He would accept the English Embassy, but it is not likely to be tendered to him.

MR. REVERDY JOHNSON has not shown the good sense to resign his position as Minister to England. In consequence of the oversight on his part, it is said that he has been telegraphed to by the President requesting that he adopt such a course.

A PERSONAL quarrel between the Minister and Secretary of our Legation at Madrid meets its just solution in a request, from our Government, for the resignation of both of the wrangling diplomatists, whose successors will be speedily designated.

THE Paraguayan question is to be investigated by a committee of Representativee, during the recess of Congress. ADMIRAL DAVIS and Mr. MCMAHON, at present our Minister to that country, are to be called home, and will appear before the Committee.

THE Cincinnati Gazette is demonstrating that the Government fails to get half of its dues from the whiskey distillers in that neighborhood. We believe in no other part of the country are the distillers so honest and faithful in making their returns as those in this locality.

THE Alabama treaty is at present the special order for the Senate in executive session, but is deferred from day to day, under the press of other executive business. Including this, there are twelve treaties awaiting the action of this body, all of which may go over to an extra session, after the adjournment of the House.

SINCE the refusal of the Cincinnati and Dayton Railway Company to execute a lease to the Erie Company, the latter insists that it is a violation of contracts, and will appeal to the Courts to enforce the original agreement. In the meantime, the Erie will use other roads, if it can, to make the connection between Urbana and Cincinnati. Is that new road still to be "built within sixty days?"

A DISPATCH to the evening Chronicle sets forth that much bitterness developed itself at Philadelphia against Governor GEARY and other officers of the Commonwealth who refused to reach forth their hands to save the murderer who died yesterday on the scaffold. It is popular at all times to decry officers who have firmness enough to do their whole duty. From their outlook Governor GEARY and his advisers viewed the case of the murderer as one in which clemency could only be exercised at the expense of justice, and they deserve credit for their independence of action in the premises.

TWITCHELL, the Philadelphia murderer, escaped the penalty of the law yesterday by taking his own life, dying the death of a suicide. In his final act he proved how just was the verdict which consigned him to the gallows.

Poor EATON died protesting his innocence, but he met his fate with cool philosophy and resignation. It may have been that he had no recollection of committing the crime done under the insane impulse of liquor, but that he was guilty there can be no just doubt. Out of the two lives whirled voluntarily and involuntarily into eternity by the law prescribing capital punishment, how much good will follow?

PROPOSITIONS are approved by the Ohio Senate, and are pending in the House, for the submission of several amendments of the State Constitution to the people. These amendments, with one exception, relate to the Judiciary, and propose the simplification of the system, with an enlargement of the functions and an increase of the number of the inferior, or Common Pleas Judges. The exception alluded to, is a proposition to restore that feature of the old Constitution abrogated in 1850, which allowed counties, townships and municipal corporations to lend their credit to aid in the construction of railroads. Unless submitted separately, the last proposition would be likely to defeat the one relating to the Judiciary, which, otherwise, could not fail to be ratified.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT made yesterday that the bill allowing interested parties to give testimony in Courts, had passed both branches of the Legislature, applying only to certain counties, and Allegheny not one of them, created considerable feeling hereabouts, as on no question of reform are our people more united in advocacy. The slight, however, is fully explained by the telegrams of last evening. Allegheny, it seems, was included, in another bill which was reached yesterday in the House, and so amended as to make it a general law, and passed. The Senate non-concurred in the amended part and thus the matter rests. The Legislature should not for an instant hesitate to make a law so just and equitable apply to all the Courts in the Commonwealth. The experiment has been tried elsewhere with most satisfactory results, and no good reason can be put forward why Pennsylvania should remain on the old beaten track discarded by more progressive localities. Whether the law be made general or not, we urge our members to see to it, that Allegheny county be placed among those securing the reform, for our people are unanimous in the demand that it shall be made.

REPENTANCE STILL OPEN.

The XVth Article has been ratified by thirteen Legislatures, all of which were chosen last year upon the broad issues presented by a living and progressive Republicanism. They were chosen in plain view of the Democratic allegation—reiterated by every orator and journalist of that party, and presented as the leading Democratic objection to the Republican Presidential and State tickets of '68—that a Republican triumph would mean the inauguration of the political equality of all citizens, irrespective of color or race. On that view, then, we conquered; on that issue the XVth amendment to the Constitution was altogether justified, has been duly proposed, and ratified by nearly one half of the needful number of Legislatures.

More than that! Since the proposition of the Article, four States, and four only, have held general elections, and each of the four ratifies that ratification, re-affirming the great principle which last November proclaimed, and which the new Article embodies. New Hampshire, Michigan, Connecticut and Rhode Island have, within the past month, again endorsed the Republican doctrine of equality before all the laws, by majorities showing, in each case, an increased per centage of the total vote, cast on the side of progressive liberty. In all these States the same issue was again presented—and once more we have the same answer.

How long will a purblind partizanship lead the opposition, stumbling along from disaster to disaster, in their suicidal resistance to an inexorable justice? Why will they not exhibit, even at this late hour, some reasonable degree of sense, and unite with us upon the wise policy which the XVth Article embodies, that of taking the question, which is so distasteful to them, out of American politics forever? The wisest of the opposition leaders would have been glad to do this last year; the policy which declined a course obvious to their prudence, and which once more bound the Democracy to be the victims of their own traditional mistake, was openly deplored by the best of their journalists and statesmen. We cannot forget how urgently that party was entreated, even after the unfortunate nominations at New York, to abandon the obnoxious candidates and the fatal policy, and to come squarely up to the support of a really Democratic Liberty and Equality. The result of November justified these wise apprehensions. And yet that insane partizanship learns nothing. Once more, it has its hour of grace—its locus penitentiæ—its opportunity to save itself. Let it join with us in an unanimous democratic-republican acceptance of liberty's creed, and it may escape its otherwise inevitable annihilation under the wheels of American Progress.

NEEDFUL WORK.

The recommendation from the President, that Congress should make further arrangements, for elections in Virginia and Mississippi, before the close of its session, meets the cordial concurrence of the people, and gives force and point to the general sentiment which we have heretofore frequently adverted to. We have never been able to see any good reason for the action by which the House, dealing with the Mississippi case last week, in effect threw all these questions overboard for the present session. Nor have we at any time been convinced that the Senate has shared in the restless impatience which seems to have governed Representatives. On the contrary, it has been clear that a large number, if not a majority, of the Republican Senators were, and still are, of the opinion as expressed by Mr. SUMNER and others, that the completion of Southern reconstruction was really the leading duty of this session, which could not properly be closed while these questions remain open.

With the President, the Senate and the people alike concurring in this conviction, that the proper work of the session cannot otherwise be completed, we shall feel a renewed confidence that the just claims of the situation are not to be ignored by the House.

Indeed, it is apparent that the message of Wednesday was a word in season, fitly spoken. It has convinced the House, not only that something should be done, but that it is a very simple thing which the case requires. It may be true, as a Senator declares, that no further legislation is required, for the holding of an election in Virginia, but the House at last perceives that it must cover the whole ground, and that this can properly be done by clothing the Executive, at once, with the needful power to order the elections in Texas and Mississippi as well, submitting the three Constitutions respectively, by sections or otherwise, and to make such other provisions as will ensure in each state a fair and orderly expression of the popular sentiment. This looks very much like abandoning the legislative functions in a lump to the Executive discretion, but, if it be the best we can have, it is a good deal better than nothing. It will impose vastly increased responsibilities upon the President, and in that view, is a marked proof of the confidence with which Gen. GRANT has inspired Representatives. We could have wished that members had sooner realized the situation. And we should be glad to see Georgia included in the measure now pending.

THE CENSUS bill, which passed the House a few days since, makes merely the preliminary provisions for the organization of a specific Bureau, which is to prepare schedules and perfect other needful arrangements for the work, subject to the approval of Congress at its next session. Beyond this, the fourth section comprehends the only really important feature of this bill. That section reads thus:

> The census shall exhibit the number and condition of the population of the United States as it may exist on the 1st day of June of the year in which the census is taken; the number of births, marriages, divorces and deaths that may have occurred within one year next preceding said date; the statistics of agriculture and productive industry within the year preceding, and statistics of the educational, religious, intellectual, charitable or other social interests, and vital and sanitary statistics.

The bill still hangs in the Senate.

THE Pittsburgh Dispatch has this report from Washington:

> Your Representative, Hon. Jas. S. Negley, succeeded in getting the bill "in relation to bridges across the Ohio river," reported by the House Committee yesterday, and had the bill immediately sent to the Senate, where he has sanguine hopes it will also be favorably entertained. He feels confident of its passage in both Houses. The struggle for and against the bill was well fought and stubbornly maintained through four separate meetings. On both sides the enormous interests to be affected were steadily kept in view. The commercial interests of the navigation of the Allegheny, Monongahela and Ohio rivers concerned in this bill aggregate, Gen. Negley stated, $100,000,000, and employed, directly and indirectly, 30,000 people!

The Covode and Foster Case.

The resolution submitted by Mr. Paine, Chairman of the Committee on Elections, and adopted by the House, disposes of this case for the present, as follows: Each claimant is required to file notice of the ground of his claim by the first of June, and to give answer to his opponent by the 20th of June; that Covode shall take his testimony from the 1st to the 15th of July, August and September; that Foster shall take testimony from the 16th to the last day of each of the above months; that the final submission of all the papers relative to the case shall be made by the 15th of October, 1869, to the Clerk of the House, who shall have them printed, and the printed arguments in behalf of each shall be filled by the first day of the session.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

A Nuisance Abated.

For some weeks past a number of young men, or large boys, have been annoying the jailors, the courts, residents on Fifth avenue, opposite the jail, and, in fact, every person passing along Fifth avenue, at Wylie street, by assembling in the room over the Common Pleas Court room, from the windows of which they could see into the windows of the upper tier of cells, which is occupied by the female prisoners. A large majority of these prisoners are lewd women, and the parties referred to would annoy them and use obscene language, which, of course, would be returned by the vile creatures in the jail in a most disgraceful manner. The annoyance became so great that complaint was made at the Mayor's office and yesterday morning several of the officers were on the lookout for the scamps who created the nuisance, and succeeded in arresting Samuel Jackson, Fred. Zacharias and Smith Elkins. They were taken to the Mayor's office, when, in default of the fines imposed by His Honor, Elkins was committed for twenty days and the others for ten days each. They will probably find some other loafing place than the Court House when they are relieved.

Effects of Liquor.

One of the most convincing proofs of the debasing effects of liquor drinking was furnished at the Allegheny lock up on Wednesday. The night previous a middle aged woman, with a few traces of former comeliness, was picked up by the police in an alley leading from the Diamond, in a state of beastly intoxication. She was taken to the lock up, and remained until Wednesday morning in an insensible condition. Later in the day she was attacked with convulsions, when Dr. Hamilton was called in, and rendered medical assistance, which relieved her somewhat for a few hours.

In the evening she again sunk into a stupor, apparently unconscious and breathing heavily. The physician was of the opinion that her condition was the effect of excessive drinking, but thought she would recover in a day or two.

Gough never had a better illustration of the effects of intemperance than would have been afforded him by a visit to the Allegheny tombs last night.

AFRICAN M. E. CONFERENCE.

Thursday's Proceedings.

Bishop Payne called the Conference to order at nine o'clock. Rev. J. W. Devine opened the proceedings with prayer. Rev. B. F. Tanner presented a draft of a constitution and by-laws for the Preachers' Literary and Historical Society, which was adopted, and the Society organized with the following officers: President, Rev. W. H. Hunter, Secretary, J. W. Asbury; Treasurer, D. E. Asbury. Revs. W. H. Brown and D. E. Asbury, candidates for Elder's orders, and J. W. Asbury, Thornton Hurley and W. A. J. Philips, candidates for full connection with the Conference, were placed on probation. Addresses were next delivered by Rev. W. H. Hunter, Lewis Woodson, Esq., and Rev. W. H. Brown, after which Rev. Dr. S. H. Nesbitt and Rev. R. T. Miller, of the M. E. Church, (white) Pittsburgh, were introduced to the Conference.

Bishop Payne closed the morning session with an address to the Ministers on their duties, urging upon them all a faithful, zealous and untiring devotion to and labor in the work.

At three o'clock in the afternoon the ordination of the newly elected Elders took place. Bishop Payne conducted the services, which were of a solemn and impressive character. At the conclusion of these services, Rev. B. F. Tanner, editor of the Christian Recorder, preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

In the evening, at seven and a half o'clock, a meeting of the Missionary Society was held, Rev. J. W. Devine presiding. After the usual introductory exercises, addresses were delivered by Revs. Lewis Woodson and W. H. Hunter on the topic "The cause of missions the cause of Christ." Revs. B. T. Tamer and D. E. Asbury followed on the question "How may we best promote the interest of the missionary work."

The closing addresses were made by Revs. J. J. Tindall and J. W. Asbury, who argued that upon the extent of missionary work done in and through its ministry, depended the future prosperity of the African Church. All of the addresses were able and developed considerable thought and acquaintance with the subjects discussed. The proceedings were interspersed with excellent music by the choir, which added in a great measure to the interest of the occasion. It is expected the business of the Conference will be finished to-day.

The Proposed New Market Place—Sites Examined by the Committee—No Selection Made.

The Market Committee of City Councils met yesterday afternoon and visited the various sites suggested for the proposed new market place for the accommodation of the people residing in the upper and outlying wards of the city. The first site visited was that on the corner of Magee street and Fifth avenue, property held by Messrs. Watson and Magee. The dimensions of this land, on which a number of common buildings are erected, were not furnished. It is within five minutes walk of the Court House, and those who advocate its selection argue that at no other point can so many people be conveniently accommodated.

The next site examined was that on the south-eastern corner of Fifth avenue and Stevenson street, now covered by B. C. & J. H. Sawyer's soap factory, and Pier, Dannals & Co.'s brewery. It has a front on Fifth avenue of 130 feet, running along Stevenson street to Forbes street 260 feet, exclusive of Beech alley, 24 feet wide, which divides the property. A sewer is to run along Forbes street in the rear, while there is one already constructed on Fifth avenue. On the ground stand the soap factory and brewery, both large and good buildings, which would furnish considerable material for a new structure. Underneath all there is a dry cellar ten feet deep, an object of importance, should the Committee select that site. The location is very good for the purpose, but the figures are rather steep.

At the corner of Reed and Fulton streets, and facing on Crawford street, the property of Messrs. George Steckner and William Ward, was examined. The site is an out of the way sort of a place, on the side of a hill. It contains a few common buildings.

The estate of Jacob Tomer, Esq., on Fifth avenue, nearly opposite the Relief engine house, was examined. It has a front of 140 feet on the avenue and runs back 200 feet to Colwell street. The principal objection to this place is its hilly character, which would render expensive grading necessary. There are a few old buildings erected on this ground.

At the corner of Miltenberger street and Fifth avenue a fine site was examined, being a part of the old Clark beer garden, we believe, and now owned by Wm. B. Lyon and others. It has a front of 240 feet on the avenue and a depth of 120 feet to Beech alley, running along Miltenberger street. In the rear there is another plot of the same size, fronting on Forbes street. These two together, 240x240 feet, exclusive of the alley, are offered the city. There are no improvements on the ground. The distance from the Court House is three-quarters of a mile, neat measure. The property holders in the neighborhood strongly urge a choice in favor of the locality, but the Committee quietly listened to all they had to say, and gave no intimation of favor or disfavor. The ground has sewers in front and rear.

The Lippincott estate opposite, having a front of 140 feet on Fifth avenue, running back along Dinwiddie to Coldwell street 195 feet, was next examined. An elegant mansion stands on this ground.

After having examined the sites of Fifth avenue, the Committee repaired to Centre avenue and viewed the property of W. B. Hays and T. B. Graham, bounded by Centre avenue, Clark, Roberts and Miller streets. It has a front of 200 feet on Centre avenue, and a depth of 96 feet. A number of common dwelling houses are erected on the site. This ground is that urged by Dr. McCandless at a recent meeting of Councils, for the new Market House.

The next site examined was the irregular triangle, or flat iron, formed at the head of Webster avenue, and owned by the city. This site had nothing to recommend it to the attention of the Committee, and the idea of using it for market purposes was dispelled at once. It would make a first rate location for an engine house or Mission Sabbath School, but is hardly good for any other use.

The Committee rested in their labors and adjourned to meet at the call of the Chairman, to take action on the subject. It is expected that estimates of the value of the places examined will be laid before the Committee at their next meeting, and in the meantime the place for the new market house remains unselected, but in all probability one of the sites enumerated will be chosen.

—The consecration of Rev. Frederick D. Huntingdon, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese of Central New York, took place yesterday, in Emanuel Church, Boston, in the presence of a large audience.

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, April 8.—In the House of Commons this evening Hon. Robert Lowe, Chancellor of the Exchequer, submitted the annual budget, in explanation of which he said the Ministry proposed to deal separately with general expenditures. Those for the Abyssinian war estimates, made by Hon. George W. Hunt, his predecessor in office, were 73,000,000 pounds, while the receipts were 725,000,00 pounds, leaving a deficit of 500,000 pounds, which had to be met this year. Mr. Lowe estimated the expenditures of the present year at 68,250,000 pounds, showing a reduction of 2,750,000 pounds from the estimated expenditures last year, which was given chiefly in the admiralty and war office. He estimated the revenue of the present fiscal year at 73,000,000 pounds, or an exces over last year of 250,000 pounds. So, if the Abyssinian war were not to be provided for, the surplus would be 4,500,000 pounds. The whole expense of the Abyssinian war was 9,000,000 pounds, of which 7,000,000 were expended in India. The country has still 4,000,000 of this amount to pay. The surplus of the present year would just balance the Abyssinian and the general deficit. Under the circumstances, said the Chancellor, it is desirable to raise a further sum by taxation. He regarded the present means of collection as expensive and unsatisfactory, and said its only warrant was in its antiquity. He proposed to collect the assessed taxes by means of excise licenses, granted at the commencement of each year, on a return to be furnished by the tax-payer, the income tax to be collected in the same manner. By these measures 3,250,000 pounds will be brought into the financial year in addition to the amount heretofore collected. Out of this amount he proposed a reduction of a penny upon the income tax, to repeal the import duty on corn and the fire insuance duty, and, to re-arrange several small items. This will give a decrease of 3,000,000 pounds, and will give nearly 500,000 pounds clear surplus.

Mr. Hunt, late Chancellor of the Exchequer, in reply to Mr. Lowe, said the reduction in the estimates was due to the efforts of the late government in making the army and navy more efficient.

After a long conversation, the usual resolution of leave to bring in the Budget was agreed to.

SPAIN.

LONDON, April 8.—Advices from Madrid give a report that Marshal Serrano, President of the Council of Ministers, and Admiral Tapete, Minister of Marine, are about to resign, and that a Directory is being formed to take control of the government.

MADRID, April 8.—The discussion upon the Constitution, which commenced in the Cortes on Monday, has become warm. Senor Castellos, an eminent republican, made a speech yesterday, strongly in opposition to that instrument. The Spanish Government have determined to disallow the introduction of any amendments which have the effect of altering the spirit of the Constitution.

FRANCE.

PARIS, April 8.—Three public meetings, which were held to-day, were dispersed by the police, and many arrests made.

AUSTRIA.

VIENNA, April 8.—The Austrian Government has resolved to reduce the army and to postpone the call for recruits, on the ground of economy.

The Case of Captain W. B. Donaldson.

The following is from the St. Louis Republican of Monday:

The killing of the negro Anderson on board the steamer Great Republic while lying at the wharf in this city last June by Captain Donaldson, is not, it appears, destined to sink into oblivion as quietly as seemed probable a few days ago. Some unexpected and important developments have occurred which promise to bring the case again before the Criminal Court in a little time.

It may be remembered that the principal witnesses were two negroes named Glover and Samuel Ray, who both disappeared shortly after the arrest of Captain Donaldson, and successfully managed to elude the officers of the law, although an indictment for murder had been procured against Ray, in order to enable him to be retained in custody in case of his capture.

On account of the absence of these witnesses the case had to be continued repeatedly by the Circuit Attorney, and a week or so ago Captain Donaldson's counsel applied for the discharge of the defendant, on the ground that the case had been continued through three terms of Court. The Judge took the matter under advisement, but before a decision was rendered, Mr. Johnson entered a nol. pros., which left the case open for a future prosecution, although the defendant was released. During the time the case was pending, no effort was spared to capture the absconding witnesses, particularly Ray. A description of him was sent to the police authorities of the different cities, and Governor Fletcher offered a reward of five hundred dollars for his arrest. It appears both the men went to Canada, and for the past ten months or so have been living at Canada West. Recently, Ray, who heard the case had been disposed of in St. Louis, concluded he was safe and came to Cincinnati, and last week was arrested by Detective Hazen, formerly of the force of this city, and was brought over here on Saturday and is now in the hands of the Chief of Police, having consented to come without a requisition. The Circuit Attorney and Captain Lee, Chief of Police, having secured the main witnesses in the case, turned their attention to Captain Donaldson; they found he had just gone to Cincinnati, and immediately telegraphed to the Chief of Police there, and ordered his arrest, which was duly effected. Yesterday the necessary papers to procure a requisition were prepared and sent on, and Captain Donaldson will probably be brought on in a day or so. So, this interesting and involved case stands at present, and the next phase will probably be a murder trial in the Criminal Court. It appears from the statement of Ray that he and Glover have been living at Toronto. Recently, the latter got into a difficulty in that city and started for the east, and is supposed now to be in New York.

Ray is the negro who entered the baggage-room of the boat with Donaldson, and was present when Anderson was shot. Glover was in irons in the room with the deceased, but managed to jump through the window, and was arrested as he was running up the levee.

Captain Lee aad Mr. Johnson have been active in gradually working up this case, which is now in a shape that it is difficult to see what can arise to prevent its being brought to a final trial by a jury.

—A Republican Convention, to nominate a candidate for Congress in the Third District of Illinois, in place of Hon. E. B. Washburne, will meet at Freeport on the 26th of May. There are about fifteen or eighteen aspirants for the office.

TRUSSES AND HERNIA.

The sad and deplorable condition of many who are afflicted with hernia or rupture of the bowels, calls loudly for some efficient and unmistakable remedy that will not only in every case give efficient relief, but in many cases effect a radical and thorough cure. These cases of hernia have become so frequent, that it is computed that one-sixth of the male population are said to be troubled, in some way or another, with this terrible ailment; and in very many cases do not know where to apply for an appropriate remedy, oftentimes not knowing whether an appliance is really needed or not; and if it should be needed, they often do not know where or to whom they should make application. The world is full of Trusses for the retention and cure of this lamentable evil, oftentimes an incontestable proof of their total and inadequate fitness to relieve the sufferer. This need not be; Dr. Keyser, at his new medicine store, No. 167 Liberty street, is abundantly supplied with every appliance, needful to the retention and relief of this terrible affliction, so that every one can be properly fitted at a moderate cost, with the full assurance that the appliance is the best that the mechanical department of surgery can afford. The Doctor has pursued the investigation of hernia with more than ordinary care for over thirty years, so that the afflicted can place implicit reliance on his skill and integrity with the full assurance that they will not only get the best truss, suitable to the case, but likewise a thorough and efficient knowledge of its proper application.

There are many persons who not only sacrifice their health, but even their lives, for want of a proper truss, or a truss properly applied. Strangulated and irreducable rupture, is a far more common ailment now than in former years; and may we not justly arrive at the conclusion, that its frequency is often occasioned by the neglect and carelessness of the sufferers themselves. No one would be regarded as sane or excusable who would go for a whole winter without the proper clothing to shield them from the inclemency of the weather, but, at the same time, it is thought a light affair to suffer for years with a protrusion that not only subjects the person to inconvenience, but even places life itself in jeopardy. Those of our readers who may be unfortunate to need appliances of this kind cannot act more wisely than to cut this advertisement out and preserve it, so as to enable them to retain the place where such important preservers of life and health are to be procured.

WOMAN AND HER NEEDS.

Subject by the law of nature to many physical afflictions from which man is exempt, woman is peculiarly entitled to the best efforts of medical science in her behalf. For a majority of the ailments to which her sex is exclusively liable, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS are warmly recommended on the authority of wives, mothers and nurses, who have tested their genial tonic and regulating properties, and "know whereof they speak;" and also with the sanction of able physicians, who have administered the preparation to their female patients, in obstinate cases of functional derangement, with the happiest results. Almost all female complaints of special character are complicated with mental gloom and despondency, and the gentle and lasting exhilerating effects of this wholesome medicated stimulant adapts admirably for cases of this complex nature. As a remedy for the hysteria and mental hallucinations which sometimes mark both the earlier and the later crisis in the life of a woman, it has no equal in the repertory of the healing art, and as a means of relieving the nausea and other unpleasant feelings which precede maternity, it is equally efficacious. Nursing mothers also find it an admirable invigorant. It is highly satisfactory that a preparation, which embraces in its remedial ranges so many of the complaints common to both sexes, should prove so eminently benficial to the weaker one.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, April 8, 1869.

The money market was more stringent to-day than at any time during this week, and bonds and stocks were checked in their advancing tendency, except 1862 Five-Twenties, which sold up to 119¾. The later issues were steady at yesterday's quotations, with a limited business. Considering the stringency of the money market, prices were sustained.

The gold market opened dull at 131⅝, but suddenly advanced to 132⅛. It is expected that Saturday's steamer will take out specie, and the advanee is attributed to that report.

The stock market is strong for nearly all the cliqued stocks. Fort Wayne is is rumored to be cornered. Other rumors say that a large stock dividend is soon to be expected, and that the stock would advance to about the same as New York Central. However, these rumors lack confirmation. None but a favored few will find it out, and if a stock-scrip dividend is to be made, it is likely to be done before Monday next, when the books will be closed for the quarterly dividend.

Money in our home market is scarce and scarcely any notes are discounted under ten or twelve per cent.

The only local securities now much in demand, and commanding high rates, are Bank stocks, with May dividend. There is quite a demand for Allegheny Bank stock, in the hope of getting good dividends during the time the State Treasurer is expected to keep a large balance of money there.

Quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz: Gold, 132; Silver, 126; Eighty-one's, 115⅝; Five Twenties, 1862, 119¾; do 1864, 114¾; do 1865, 116½; do 1865, Consols, 113⅛; do 1867, ——; do 1868, ——; Ten Forties, 105⅛; New York Central, 63½; Erie, ——; Reading, 92½; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad, 31; Ohio & Mississippi, 32¾; Michigan Southern, 96⅝; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 96½; Chicago & Rock Island, 31¼; Chicago & North-Western, 84⅝; Chicago & North Western Preferred, 96⅝; Adams Express Company, 58½; Merchants Union Express, 15½; Pacific Mail, 92; Western Union Telegraph Company, 41⅜; Gregory, 2,70; Quartz Hill, 1,05; Corydon, —; Smith & Parmlee, 2,50; W. NEW YORK, April 8, 1869.

Money worked to-day very much the same as yesterday, the highest rates been on call loans. Early in the morning transactions were made at 7 per cent. currency, with commissions added at ⅛, 1-16 and 1-32 per cent. Afterwards rates advanced from 1-32 to 1-16 per cent., and remained there some time; but finally the supply of money increased, which caused a decline to 7 per cent. gold interest on stock before 3 o'clock, and government bankers were lending balances at 7 per cent. currency discount. The market remains demoralized, and the lowest rate on prime paper was ½ per cent. Foreign exchange dull, prime bankers 7⅞@8⅛ per cent. Gold firmer; opened at 131¼@132¼, and closed at 132. A sudden rise to 132¼ attracted much attention, and was ascribed to the report that the Bank of England had raised the rate to 4½ per cent., which turned out without foundation. Later it transpired that a prominent operator on the bear side had been unable to respond to his contracts, and those placed short by this were quietly buying in gold. There was no public announcement made in the room, consequently there was no gold bought in under rules. The rates paid for borrowing were from flat to 1-64, 1-32, 6, 7, 3, 2, 3-64, 1-16, 1-32 and ⅛ per cent., these rates show a growing scarcity of cash gold, caused by heavy payments into the Sub-Treasury for duties for some time.

Governments were stronger owing to considerable talk on the street of a corner in 1862s to-morrow. It was currently reported that a leading bank firm and prominent stock house were short together nearly five millions, and the screws were to be put to these parties to-morrow. The 1862s were 119¾ regular, while a round amount could not be sold, seller 60, at better than 118, which gave some color to the reported corner; but in any event the future promises a lively time in Government bond market. Coupons of '81, 115¾@116; do. '62, 119¾@120; do. '64, 114¾@115; do. '65, 116½@116¾; new do., 113½@113¾; do. '67, 113½@113¾; do. '68, 113½@113¾; 10-40s, 105⅛@105⅜.

State Bonds firm: Missouris, 87¼@87½; Old Tennessees, 66½; New do., 65¼@65½; North Carolinas, 54.

The stock market was active during the morning and prices generally well maintained. The special feature was the New York Central which fell from 166 to 163¼, and went subsequently between 163¾@164¾. The cause of the break is supposed to be the heavy orders from Albany to sell with a limit. The most active stocks were the Southern, Pittsburgh, Northwestern and Pacific Mail. At the 1 o'clock board, the market was generally firm with an advance on St. Paul and Northwestern Pacific; the firmness continued at the second board, especially in Northwestern, New York Central, Pacific Mail, Reading, Michigan Southern and St. Paul. Subsequently the market was quiet, but strong, with a general advance, though Central did not recover the high figure of the morning. Express shares are steady and dull.

5-30 Prices—Cumberland 33@36½; Wells Express, 31@31½; American, 40@40½; Adams, 59@59½; Merchants Union, 15½@16¼; U. Central, 164@164⅛; Erie, 34⅛; Hudson, 144@145; Reading, 93⅛@93¼; Harlem 134@136; Terre Haute, 37; preferred, 65⅛@68; Wabash, 67¼; preferred, 77½@79; St. Paul, 75½@75¾; preferred, 83⅝@83¾; Fort Wayne, 131¼@131½; Ohio & Mississippi, 32⅞@@33; Michigan Central, 119@120; Michigan Southern, 97@97⅛; Pittsburgh, 90⅞@91; Illinois Central, 138; Toledo, 96⅝@97; Rock Island, 131⅝@131¾; Lake Shore, Northwestern, 85; pref., 97⅛@97¼; Marietta and Cin. pref., 23; Burlington and Quincy, 172.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, April 8, 1869.

We noticed yesterday that there was a clog in the oil business, and what was true yesterday is equally applicable today. The brokers appeared to be busily engaged, but they had their labor in vain, as it seemed impossible almost to get buyers and sellers together; there were any number of offers out to buy and sell, but as a general thing there was a hitch on one side or the other, and thus it was all day; and indeed this is the way it has been all week. The great drawback appears to be, that oil is relatively cheaper at the distriputing points than it is at the producing centre, and while it continues so we cannot reasonably look for any material or healthy improvement. To illustrate, Crude is relatively lower here than it is at Oil City, and the same is equally true of Pittsburgh and New York. It was quoted at 17 at the latter point this afternoon, while here there were no sellers below 15, a difference of two cents, while transportation alone to New York costs double that: not counting many other incidental expenses. There is still another obstacle in the way of business; crude is too high for Refined. We are assured that, taking present prices as a basis, there is no margin for the refiner whatever, and our refiners, as a general thing, are not disposed to run their works when there is no margin, or at a loss, if they can help it. From this it naturally follows, that the trade will continue dull until there is a decline on the one hand or an advance on the other, or, until such time as there is a margin apparent, at least, to the refiner as well as the crude dealer.

CRUDE—As already noted, the market is dull and sensitive but without quotable change. There were sales reported of four "lines" of 1,000 each for April to June at 15½, and we are cognizant of an offer having been made to sell 5,000 each, same months, at same figure, without finding a buyer. Spot oil is still held at 15, with buyers at 14½@14¾.

REFINED—Sale 500 each, May and June at 33¼. Later in the day, the last half April was quoted at 31⅝@31¾; April to June quoted at 33; May to September 35; April to September, same; May to December 35½; and July to December 36. Buyer all year nominal at 38.

Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, April 7.—The Dry Goods market continues panicky but more active at concessions. Mystic Lake bleached muslins are reduced to 19c, Booth's down to 12½c. Lonesdale 4-4 reduced to 11½, and Sprague's delaines to 15½, currency, or 1 shilling in gold. This is enough to tell how demoralized the market is; somes classes of goods are now selling at prices far below the cost of production, yet the demand is in no way lively. Better classes of delaines, however, hold their own pretty well and meet with good enough sale, but taking the market as a whole, trade is far from being satisfactory, and but few merchants in town or country are likely to make much money this spring.

CINCINNATI, April 8.—Cattle Market—Beef Cattle unchanged and quiet $6@7,50, gross. Hogs unchanged at $8,50@11; the latter rates only obtained for those ranging from 275to 300 lbs.

Washington, April 7, 1869.

ARMY MATTERS.

The following additional Paymasters of the Army are mustered out of the service from June 1st: Brevet Lieutenant Colonels David Gibben, Joshua H. Watts and Calvin Holmes.

Capt. Jas. T. Hoyt, Assistant Quartermaster, has resigned. Brevet Maj. Gen. S. W. Crawford, Colonel 16th Infantry, has been ordered to join his regiment in the Department of the South.

Regulations have been issued from the War Department mustering a number of clerks and messengers to headquarters of military divisions and departments out of service. Recruits will be received from July 1st, so they will not exceed —— in the aggregate, all of whom will be rated as clerks, and allowed the extra pay and commutation prescribed for clerks. The number of hired citizens employed by the Quartermaster's Department, whether rated as clerks, teamsters, mechanics or laborers, will be reduced as rapidly as possible, so that by the 1st of July and thereafter they will not exceed four thousand. The Quartermaster General will distribute the number to the several departments according to the number of troops therein, or according to the work to be done, and when any necessity arises for a special number of hired men in excess of the above number, he will submit the case for orders of the President.

The Commanding Generals of military divisions and departments will cause thorough inspection to be made as to the number of officers drawing commutation for fuel and quarters and reduce the number as much as possible. All officers and troops should be quartered in the regular forts and barracks of the United States whenever it may be possible, and when the barracks are inadequate for all military purposes they may submit plans and estimates for new and enlarged barracks with a view to accommodation in public buildings of the army on its present standard. In like manner the Commanding Generals of divisions and departments will cause a thorough examination into all the means of transportation, whether animals, barges, boats, &c., with a view to a reduction to the actual wants of the service, and will report therein specially to the headquarters of the Army.

Georgia Politics—The Delegation at the Capital.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ATLANTA, April 6.—The following appears in an editorial in the New Era, of this morning, in reference to the Georgia delegation in Washington, including Governor Bullock: "As a Grant Republican, we loathe these monsters in human shape, and hope they may perish by the way-side, and the State never again be cursed by their presence." The above incentive to murder is denounced by every respectable citizen of Atlanta.

Notice to Our Readers.—Any subscriber who removed on the first of April, should leave the number of his present residence, at our counting room, so that his paper may be left without interruption by the carrier.

Mayor Drum yesterday committed three vagrants to jail, for thirty days each.

A new iron culvert has been laid across the gutter at the corner of Lacock and Federal streets, Allegheny.

A bill to abolish capital punishment was defeated in the House, at Harrisburg, yesterday, by a very decided majority.

Both Branches of Legislature have accepted an invitation to be present at the dedication of the Gettysburg Monument, on July 1st.

Committed.—Justice Stephens, of Banksville, Union township, yesterday committed to the county jail for trial, Ann Dening, on an information for surety of the peace, preferred against her by Thomas Dening.

Taken to the House of Refuge.—John Sullivan, the boy sentenced to the House of Refuge by the Court, for setting fire to McAfee's glass works, Birmingham, was taken over to that institution yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Stubbs.

Ankle Sprained.—On Wednesday evening, Mr. John Livingston, stable boss of the Citizens Passenger Railway, fell through a hatchway at the commission house of Scott & Gisel, near Canal street, and had his ankle severely sprained. He is recovering.

Degree Conferred.—The Faculty of William and Mary College, Virginia, have conferred the degree of D. D. on Rev. Wm. M. Young, pastor of the Union Baptist Church of this city. The honor could not have been conferred upon a more worthy minister.

Attention is directed to the advertisement offering to let "Vine Cliff," a delightful dwelling commanding a view of the Ohio, Allegheny and Monongahela rivers, and surrounded by beautiful grounds. Mr. Hall Patterson, No. 71 Grant street, has the letting in charge.

Selling Liquor to Minors.--David Lynch made information before Alderman McMasters, yesterday, against Stephen Cavanaugh for selling liquor to minors. Cavanaugh is an Italian, and proprietor of a fruit, confectionery, &c. stand on Fifth avenue. The accused was arrested and held for a hearing.

Mr. Wm. C. Armstrong, very favorably known in business circles, succeeds Fetzer & Armstrong in the general commission and produce business, at No. 25 Market street. We can safely commend Mr. A. to our readers as a careful, prompt and honorable gentleman with whom it is a pleasure to deal.

Aggravated Assault.—Annie Shepert lodged an information, before Alderman McMasters, yesterday, against Peter Schlegel, for aggravated assault and battery. The parties reside in East Birmingham. Annie alleges Peter dragged her down a pair of stairs by the hair of her head, and then kicked and otherwise maltreated her. A warrant for the arrest of the accused was issued.

Another Lunatic.—Yesterday morning, about seven o'clock, one of the police officers arrested Philip Trottman in the vicinity of the Union Depot, while acting in a manner that would indicate him to be crazy. He was taken to the lock-up, where he still remains. He states that he came from Chambersburg, and is evidently insane on monetary affairs. He asserts that he is worth one million dollars in gold and silver.

Mr. J. P. Wickersham, the able and accomplished State Superintendent of Common Schools, has been re-appointed by Governor Geary for the ensuing term. The Senate wisely confirmed the nomination. Under Mr. Wickersham's management the free schools of the State have rapidly advanced towards perfection, thus affording ample evidence of that gentleman's competency for the position.

Resigned.—Ed. P. Long, Esq., the zealous Superintendent of the Young Men's Christian Association, has resigned that position. The good work this gentleman has performed in the cause of his Master, should merit for him the blessings of Providence in whatever new occupation he may adopt, and, while we regret his action in withdrawing, we earnestly hope he may prove as useful to society in any other sphere of life he may enter.

Forestalling the Market.—Market Constable Valentine Stork, of the Allegheny market house, yesterday afternoon arrested Wm. Morrison for forestalling the market. The accused was noticed by the officer buying several lots of eggs from countrymen, and he promptly arrested him. When taken before Mayor Drum, Morrison acknowledged purchasing the eggs to sell again at his store in Pittsburgh. He was fined ten dollars and costs.

Fight Between Employees.—Yesterday morning two employees, engaged in the shifting yard of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, off Penn street, got into a quarrel. The result seems to have been unfavorable to one of them, Patrick Skahill, who lodged an information, before Alderman Taylor, against his opponent, Thomas McGill, for assault and battery. The accused was arrested when the case was compromised, McGill paying the costs.

Gone.—Our highly respected friend, Dr. J. L. McKee, has entered into a partnership which we trust may last through a long, prosperous and happy life. We mean that he has entered matrimony, selecting for his partner one of Millvale's fairest and most accomplished daughters. The happy couple are tendered our heartiest wishes for their welfare, and may Providence have in reserve for them all the joy, peace, content and happiness which their many friends earnestly desire should fall to their lot.

The third number of Appleton's Journal is accompanied by a finely executed steel engraving, from a painting by Kensett, called "Noon on the Sea shore." Steel engravings with weekly journals are a new feature in periodical literature. Heretofore they have been used as illustrations for monthly magazines, but even with these higher priced works it has been rare to find any thing so truly excellent as the plate given with Appleton's Journal. It is really a work of art; the engraving excellent, and the subject peculiarly charming. How such an engraving can be afforded for ten cents, supposing the price of the Journal to be for this alone, is a mystery.

Lecture by Mr. Vincent.—At the earnest solicitation of a number of our prominent citizens, Mr. Henry Vincent, the eminent English orator, will lecture in this city at the Academy of Music, on Monday evening. His subject, "Oliver Cromwell," is sufficient guarantee of the intellectual feast in store for those who may attend. There will be no reserved seats, but tickets for all parts of the house at fifty cents each are now ready for sale at the Mercantile Library Rooms, corner of Penn and Sixth streets. Read the correspondence in another column.

An Effort was made in the House at Harrisburg to introduce a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the State Constitution bestowing on females the right of suffrage. The members voted it down by a hearty majority. How very unkind it was to refuse giving the women a fair show at the ballot-box. There are but few unmarried men in that body, so they can afford to be independent on the subject of women's rights, or perhaps, they see too much of that doctrine at home, and don't care about giving it a wider range.

Alleged Aggravated Assault.

John Martin made information before Alderman Lynch, yesterday, against Thomas Dain for aggravated assault and battery. Martin alleges he has been employed as a hack driver by Dain, who is proprietor of a livery stable. He states that about four weeks ago Dain pulled him off the hack to the ground, breaking his collar bone and one finger, and otherwise abusing him to such an extent as to necessitate his lying at his residence since that time under medical treatment. A warrant for the arrest of the accused was issued.

Alleged Assault.

Charles Grauwiler made information before Alderman Eggers, of Allegheny, yesterday, against Peter Albrecht for assault and battery. The parties are employed at a blacksmith shop in the Seventh ward. The prosecutor alleges that Albrecht attacked him in the shop, yesterday, without cause, and pummelled him severely, striking him in the face with a piece of iron, blacking his eyes and otherwise abusing him. The accused was arrested, and after a hearing the case was compromised.

Hack Driver's Row.

Henry Schafer and James McCord, rival hack drivers, got into a dispute in the vicinity of the Union Depot yesterday, which finally proceeded from words to blows, and caused quite a severe battle between them for some time. After the affair was over Schafer lodged information before Alderman Taylor against McCord, for assault and battery. The accused was arrested, and after a hearing, gave bail for his appearance at court.

REPORT OF STREET COMMITTEE.

Mr. Myler, Chairman of the Street Committee, presented the report of that Committee:

The attention of your Committee having been directed to the fact that the data furnished by the Treasurer to the Solicitor, in reference to the collection of unpaid sewer assessments is insufficient to proceed against owners of property by reason of a want of proper description thereof. To remedy this matter your Committee offer the following resolutions:

Your Committee have instructed the Street Commissioner to ascertain and prepare a list of the prominet localities where stone crossings were needed, that officer reports crossings necessary at over sixty points throughout the city, and requiring abont 2,400 feet of stone. The list was approved by your Committee and the following resolution is submitted:

Resolved, That the Controller be and is hereby authorized to advertise for proposals to furnish the city two thousand four hundred feet of undressed flag stone for crossings, and in conjunction with the Street Committee award the contract to the lowest and best bidder.

The report was accepted and the resolutions adopted.

REPORT OF FINANCE COMMITTEE.

Mr. Hall, Chairman of the Finance Committee, submitted the following report:

In the matter of providing funds for the payment of current expenses of the city, your committee submit the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Finance Committee be, and they are hereby empowered to borrow the sum of $15,000 for the purpose of meeting current expenses.

The controller called the attention of your committee to the fact that a number of bills had been presented, in which members of Councils are interested. Under the law he does not feel at liberty to give them the sanction of his official approval, and yet there is no doubt in his mind about their correctness. To relieve him therefore, your committee submit the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Controller be and he is hereby instructed to certify warrants on the Treasurer in favor of the following parties for the following amounts: Messrs. Voegtly & Kopp, $101.11; Tate, Munden & Tate, $12.10; Stuckrath & Co., $80; James McBrier, $3.12.

Accompanying the report was a resolution authorizing the laying of the pipes.

The report was received and the resolution adopted.

REPORT OF POLICE COMMITTEE.

Mr. English, from the Police Committee, submitted the following report:

The attention of your Committee having been directed by the Mayor to an ordinance passed by the Councils of Pittsburgh, for the suppression of disorderly houses, houses of ill-fame, and disorderly assemblages, and the necessity for the passage of one of a similar character by your Honorable Bodies, being strikingly apparent, your Committee, after considerable discussion, decided to report said ordinance, making it conform, of course, to the city of Allegheny, and respectfully ask its adoption.

The report was received.

The ordinance was referred to the City Solicitor for his opinion as to whether Councils have power to pass such an ordinance

Mr. Myler presented an ordinance providing for the construction of a sewer on Spring Garden avenue, two thousand feet in length.

Mr. Hall objected to the passage of the ordinance until the Committee had reported on the matter.

On motion of Mr. Patterson, the ordinance was referred to the Committee on Streets and Sewers.

RESIGNATION OF CONTROLLER FRANCIS.

Mr. Myler moved to amend the resolution by inserting "in caucus" instead of joint session.

The President refused to entertain the amendment.

Mr. Phillips moved to amend by striking out "this evening" and inserting "the next regular meeting of Councils."

The amendment was adopted.

MARKET COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

Mr. Hanna, from the Committee on Markets, presented a report, showing the following receipts for the month of March:

Duncan Dallas, Clerk of Markets	$526 76
George B. McNulty, Diamond Scales	272 73
James Hunter, Second Ward Scales
Total	$799 42

The report was read.

Mr. Hastings asked for an explanation, why there was no report from the Second Ward Scales?

Mr. Hanna stated none had been received from the official.

Mr. McNeill moved to refer the report to the Committee to have the blank filled.

Mr. Hanna thought it could do no harm to receive the report and let the matter be attended to hereafter.

Mr. Long thought it would be establishing a bad precedent to allow the case to be passed.

President McBrier called the joint session to order and stated its object.

Mr. Morrison nominated Mr. Albert Holmes.

On motion, the nominations closed and Mr. Holmes was unanimously elected.

The joint session then adjourned.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—The audience at the Opera House last night was reasonably large and the entertainment excellent. To-night Miss Dargon, the leading lady of the establishment, will take a benefit. Since her connection with the Opera House in this city Miss Dargon has made a host of friends, and as an actress she is held in high appreciation by the amusement going public. She is a lady of rare talent and evinces a degree of cultivation which can be reached only by close application to the profession and hard study. While she may have an occasional superior in the brilliant galaxy of female stars, who now grace the American stage, she is destined to occupy a high place in her profession, and even now, although playing an engagement as leading lady, possesses more genius and a higher degree of cultivation than many who have not only acquired a high reputation, but accumulated fortunes in the profession. She is in every respect deserving of the popularity she has attained in this city, and we hope her numerous friends will evince their appreciation of her talent in a substantial manner by filling the house from pit to dome, so that there may be no room left for "dead heads."

Diamond Robbery.

On Friday last six valuable diamonds, used for cutting glass, were stolen from the office of Messrs. D. & H. Chambers' glass house, Birmingham. Two lads, aged about fifteen and seventeen respectively, were noticed a short time before the discovery of the loss of the diamonds loitering around the place, and it was suspected that they were in some way connected with the disappearance of the articles. Officer Stemler of Justice Barker's police was informed of the affair, and with the clue afforded, succeeded yesterday in arresting one of the suspected lads, with four of the diamonds in his possession. The name of the lad secured is Michael Loughrey. He was, after a hearing, committed to jail for trial on a charge of larceny. The other boy has not been arrested yet, but the officer is on his track and will doubtless arrest him to-day. The property stolen was valued at about fifty dollars.

PITTSBURGH THEATRE.—The Old Theatre appears to be the most attractive place of amusement in the city at present. Full houses are nightly occurrences, and the chief attraction this week are Signoretta Lopez and her troupe of juvenile acrobats, M'lle Bonzanti and Miss Annie Hindle. Master Charles Gardiner, in "My Father Sould Charcoal," is a very prominent feature, as are also Miss Blanch Stanley and Tom Rollas.

Alleged Larceny.

Mr. John McCambridge, proprietor of a Hotel on Penn street, in the twelfth ward, made information before the Mayor yesterday, charging Stephen Blange with the larceny of $90, in one and two dollar bills. It appears that the accused boarded with the proprietor, and a few days since Mr. McCambridge received a lot of money, among which were the one and two dollar bills stolen, the two dollar bills all marked by being punched through the lower left hand corner. The money had been missing several days, and yesterday morning Blange came in to pay his board bill, and in doing so paid out, it is alleged, some of the identical twos, with the mark as described. A warrant was issued for his arrest.
